Mosquito repellants etc. under purview of Central Insecticides Board

1843. SHRI SHAMIM HASHMI: Will the Minister of AGRICULTURE be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that a large number of mosquito repellants, coils, creams etc. with pesticides are on the market and if so, whether these have been cleared by the Central Insecticides Board and if not, the reasons therefor;

(b) whether a thorough analysis has been made and record kept of pesticides used so and if so, the details thereof; and

(c) whether Government propose to bring all these products under the Insecticide Act and apply all consumer protection laws to these products dangers of which are not fully understood or known?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF AGRICULTURE (SHRI MULLAPPALLY RAMACHANDRAN) (a) Some of the mosquito mats/coils available in the market as repellants having pesticides, have been registered by the Registration Committee constituted under the Insecticides Act, 1968. Repellant creams, however, are not registered as they do not come under the purview of the Act.

(b) Yes, Sir. The mosquito repellants in the form of mats or coils containing pesticides are registered by the Registration Committee after evaluating the data on different set parameters as generated by the industry, and after satisfying itself regarding their safety to human beings and animals.

(c) Mosquito repellants and coils except for creams, having pesticides, are covered under the Insecticides Act, and goods, as defined in the Sale of Goods Act, 1930, which suffer from one or more defects are covered under the Consumer Protection Act, 1968.

Claims made by NDDB officers
